YOU CAN BELIEVE IN MIRACLES!

Pranic healing is an ancient science and art of healing which utilizes prana, chi or life force to improve the health of the body. It involves the manipulation of life force and etheric matter in the patient's energy body. Pranic Healing is a no-touch, no-drug energy based healing developed by Grand Master Choa Kok Sui.

Scientists validate the existence of an energy field that surrounds and interpenetrates the body and nourishes it with life force or Prana. Frontier scientists describe us as quantum packets of energy, continuously transmitting and receiving energy. There are energy centers or chakras which control all our human aspects. These energy fields get contaminated and damaged, thus physical, emotional and mental imbalances are the outcome.

Pranic Healing techniques cleanse, energize and rebalance the energy field to restore harmony and balance physically, emotionally and mentally. These techniques can also be used to correct imbalances in vortices of energy that control all human activities such as relationships, finance, work and home environments to allow them to function at their optimum level. This in turn improves the way life force circulates and nourishes the physical body, bringing about an accelerated rate of healing.

Pranic Healing is a system that enables you to understand and tap into the very fabric of our existence – Universal Life Force Energy. You will learn about how we as humans can harness this energy for healing, manifestation, and spiritual growth.
